UPCOMING EVENTS:

On Thursday, March 19 from 6:30pm - 8:00pm, various local community prevention coalitions will come together at the Carver Public Library to co-host a screening of the documentary "If They Had Known." This 30-minute film was created in memory of Clay Soper, and speaks to the dangers of current party culture through the eyes of Clay's friends, family and medical professionals. Following the film attendees will have the opportunity to engage in a discussion around the negative consequences of underage drinking and substance use. The event is FREE and open to the community. There will be refreshments and door prize giveaways for all attendees; including gift certificates to local restaurants and businesses, as well as fitness memberships. Parents, community members, and high school aged youth are encouraged to attend!

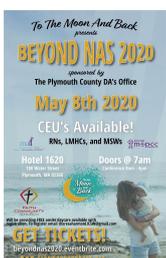

PCO SPOTLIGHT:

Lead Recovery coach Haley has been attending L Street Mission in Brockton to lend a hand as well as offer her services to those in attendance! The L Street Mission is located at Central United Methodist Church in Brockton at 65 West Elm Street. They are open from 8am - 12pm on Mondays and Wednesdays and 8am - 4pm on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. L Street is in dire need of volunteers.
